There's so much at stake.

This election is an incredibly close two-horse race between me and the Conservative candidate.

The choice is clear. A Labour Mayor who is helping Londoners through the cost-of-living crisis and has a positive vision to build a fairer, greener and safer London for everyone. Or, the Conservative candidate who doesn't share London's values and would take our city backwards.

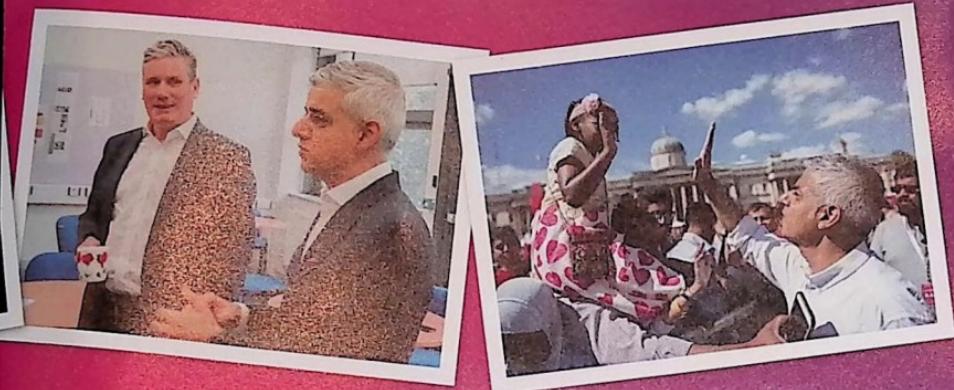

So I'm asking you to lend me your vote.

A vote for Labour is a vote for thousands of more genuinely affordable homes across our city. It's a vote for a safer city, where we are both tough on crime and tough on the complex causes of crime. It's a vote for a greener city, with more affordable public transport. And it's a vote for a fairer London, where everyone has a chance to reach their potential.

London is the greatest city in the world, but it can be even better. I'm optimistic and ambitious about what we can achieve in London over the years ahead.

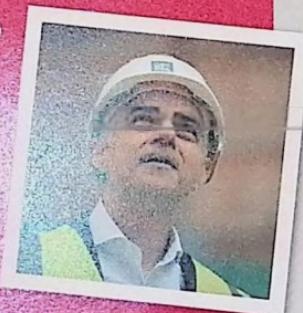

Vote for a better London on 2 May – a fairer, safer and greener London for everyone.

What has Sadiq delivered for London?

- Providing free school meals for all primary school pupils
- Freezing TfL fares and delivering the new bus fare, the Night Tube and the Elizabeth line
- Getting London building again – building more new council homes than ever before since the 1970s
- Taking world-leading action to tackle the climate crisis – reducing air pollution by half in central London alone
- Tackling crime and the causes of crime – putting 1,300 extra police on the streets and providing 350,000 positive opportunities for young Londoners

Now let's go even further. Just imagine what we could achieve with a Labour Mayor and a new Labour government working hand-in-hand later this year.
